

Tutors

Spirit Studios is an independent Higher Education provider based in Manchester. We offer a range of different courses:

Undergraduate Degrees

- BA (Hons) Music Production
- BA (Hons) Electronic Music Production and Performance
- BSc (Hons) Live Sound Engineering and Music Production
- BA (Hons) Music Business and Event Management
- BA (Hons) Popular Music, Songwriting and Performance
- BA (Hons) Music Production with Foundation Entry

Postgraduate Degree

- MA Music Production

Industry/Evening Programmes

- Creative Music Production
- Sound Engineering and Music Production
- Studio Production and Mastering
- Live Sound Engineering
- Mastering
- Sound for Visual Media

We are looking for enthusiastic, qualified, creative music producers to lead, promote and deliver our programmes.

Duties & Responsibilities:

- Teach within one or more of the above fields.
- Coordinate with Programme Leader(s) and Head of Education to develop innovative approaches to delivery and contribute where appropriate to the ongoing development of the curriculum area.
- Contribute to the monitoring and implementation of the quality of provision within the curriculum area, including the maintenance of module VLE and student attendance monitoring.
- Liaison with delivery staff in dealing with learner pastoral support and disciplinary issues.
- Represent and actively promote Spirit Studios at internal or external events as required.
- Be involved in the module planning process to ensure all learners are offered appropriate learning options.
- Participate in staff or professional development activities.
- Undertake any other duties that may be reasonably required, commensurate with the scope of the post and agreed with the Programme Leader(s) and Head of Education.

Essential requirements:

- For degree teaching, a degree in a music based subject area, preferably with a specialism or a clearly defined interest in music production
- Ability, creativity and experience as a music producer
- Strong understanding of a broad range of production software, hardware and techniques

- Evidence of successful coordination of learners within an appropriate educational setting.
- Proven organisational ability and experience.
- Understanding of an individual's responsibility for promoting and safeguarding the welfare of individuals.
- A commitment to undertake or deliver training as required.

Desirable requirements:

- Strong understanding of IT
- Music Industry experience
- Teaching experience

Equal opportunities:

Spirit Studios is committed to equality and diversity, and welcomes applications from all sectors of the community.

If you think you're a good fit for the role, please send an email with covering letter as attachments explaining how to rachel.emms@spiritstudios.ac.uk